

I choose to get my traffic information on XM Satellite Radio while enroute. The information and entertainment is clear, constant without commercial interruption and not subject to disruption by reason of distance from the transmitting station. I do not have to research for frequency of stations transmitting the data.